The time has come! I have had the privilege of being President of the New Rochelle Council on the Arts for the past four years and have to say that it has changed my life. I have grown and become a much more connected member of the New Rochelle community. I have met amazing creative people and am so proud that I have had the opportunity of helping to build the arts in this already gifted city. I am sad, in some ways, that it has come to the end of my term of service, but confident that the Council is in good hands and the work of creating enriching opportunities will continue. I am excited because of all I have learned these last years, I now feel confident that I can create a new destination in downtown New Rochelle. As an Eco-friendly Boutique, Gallery, Vegan Café, and Community space, Recologie will be my continued dedication to the arts. I welcome Theresa Kump Leghorn as our new President. The New Rochelle Council on the Arts will continue to provide leadership and inspiration in the on-going enrichment of our city.
